

Scanning of Bert Moulton Abstract

Debbie Kaye Craddock, current owner of this property, has preserved and provided this abstract.

A copy of this abstract was provided to Dale C. Maley by Shana Koehl. All pages of the abstract were scanned at high resolution.

Page 2 of the abstract is very faint, and the scanned image was almost illegible. This is a critical page of the abstract, because it essentially documents the founding of Fairbury. It documents the roles of Dr. J. Leland Miller, Caleb L. Patton, and Octave Chanute. It also documents that A.J. Cropsey was involved with early Fairbury land transactions.

Page 2 was retyped on new paper, to make it legible.

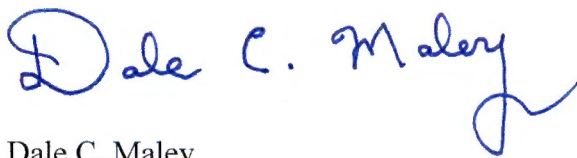

The other pages of the abstract are dark enough to give readable scans.

There was a separate legal document which was not stapled to the original Bert Moulton Abstract. This document was scanned also.

The original documents are printed on 8.5x14 inch legal paper. The resultant PDF file can be printed as a standard 8.5x11" paper file. It is probably possible to print the file on legal 8.5x14 paper as well.

The images from this high resolution scanning work were input into a PDF file. The order of this PDF file is:

1. Scanning of Bert Moulton Abstract [this sheet]
2. Retyping of Page 2
3. Bert Moulton Abstract
4. Separate legal document

(b) To pay all costs, charges and expenses of said trust estate and management, including reasonable compensation to said Trustees for their services herein.

(c) This trust shall terminate upon the last day of the 20th year after the date of my death, or at such time prior thereto when the survivor of my said son, William G. Scouler and my said daughter Helen M. Barrie shall have died, whichever event shall first occur.

(d) Until the termination of this trust, as above provided, the net income from my trust estate from time to time remaining in the hands of said Trustees, shall be paid by said Trustees as follows:

1. Until the last day of the 10th year after the date of my death said entire net income shall be paid to my son William G. Scouler, and my daughter, Helen M. Barrie, share and share alike, and to the survivor of them; provided, however, that if either my said son or my said daughter shall die leaving lawful issue him or her, as the case may be, surviving, such lawful issue from time to time so surviving shall receive the share of such net income which such deceased son or daughter of mine, as the case may be, would have received if living, per stirpes.

2. From and after the last day of the 10th year after my death the entire net income from the portion, or the whole (as the case may be) of my trust estate then remaining in the hands of said Trustees, shall be paid to my son William G. Scouler, if living, and if not living, then to the lawful issue of my said son from time to time surviving, per stirpes. And if neither my said son nor any lawful issue of my said son shall be living, then and in that event such net income shall be paid to my said daughter Helen M. Barrie.

(e) Upon the last day of the 10th year after my death, said Trustees shall forthwith pay over, convey and deliver to my said daughter, Helen M. Barrie, if she shall be then living, one half of the principal, or corpus of my trust estate as the same shall be then constituted, as her own absolute property free from any and all trusts hereunder. And in case my said daughter shall not be then living, but shall have left her surviving, lawful issue who shall be then living, such lawful issue of my said daughter Helen so surviving shall receive the share of the corpus of my trust estate which my said daughter Helen would have received if living, per stirpes.

(f) Upon the termination of this trust, as provided in the foregoing paragraph "(c)" of this Article "THIRD" of my will, said Trustees shall forthwith pay over, convey and deliver the portion, or the whole, (as the case may be) of my trust estate then remaining in the hands of said trustees as the same may be then constituted, to my son, William G. Scouler, if he is then living, and if he is not then living, to the lawful issue of my said son, if any, who shall be then living, per stirpes.

In case neither my said son, William G. Scouler, nor any lawful issue of my said son shall be then living, then and in that event, said trust estate as then constituted shall be paid over, conveyed and delivered to my daughter, Helen M. Barrie, if she shall be then living, and if she is not then living, then and in that event to the lawful issue of my said daughter, if any, who shall be then living, per stirpes.

In case neither my said son William nor my said daughter Helen nor any lawful issue of either my said son or my said daughter shall be living at the termination of the trust, as aforesaid, then and in that event my said trust estate as the same shall be then constituted shall be paid over, conveyed and delivered to my grandchildren, Thomas D. Scouler and Elizabeth H. Scouler, share and share alike, and to the survivor of them.

(g) In case my daughter Helen shall not survive me or survive me shall die prior to the last day of the 10th year after the date of my death without leaving lawful issue her surviving, then and in either of such events I direct that there shall be paid to her husband, J.M. Barrie, if he is then living, out of the corpus of my trust estate, upon my death in the one case, and upon the death of my said daughter after my death in the other case, the sum of $500.00.

(h) I expressly direct that in case of illness, misfortune or necessity occurring at any time to either my said son William or my said daughter Helen, that my said Trustees, may, from time to time in their absolute and uncontrolled discretion use such sum or sums from the principal of my trust estate for the benefit of either my said son or my said daughter as to them may seem necessary or expedient under the circumstances or exigencies of the occasion, and the payment of any portion or portions of the principal of my trust estate by my said Trustees for the benefit of either of my said son or my said daughter pursuant to the above provisions shall be binding and conclusive upon all my heirs, devisees and beneficiaries hereunder.

(i) No general words used in this will such as "lawful issue" shall be construed to include the adopted child of any person whomsoever.

(j) The various interests by this will created, in either principal or income, shall not be grantable, transferable or otherwise assignable by anticipation, either by the voluntary or involuntary act of the respective beneficiaries or by operation of law, and said interests, or any part thereof, shall in no way or manner be liable for or be liable to be taken for any debt, liability or contract of the respective beneficiaries, whenever created, or to be applied in any way or manner to the payment thereof; it being my intention to assure the payment of said income during the terms specified and the distribution of principal as specified to the respective beneficiaries for their own individual use and benefit, and to limit their respective rights hereunder to such sums only as may become payable to them as above provided.

FOURTH: I hereby nominate and appoint my said son, William G. Scouler, and my said daughter, Helen M. Barrie, Executors of this my last will and testament, and I direct that no bond shall be required of them as such, and I give unto the said William G. Scouler and Helen M. Barrie as such executors, or to the survivor of them full power and authority to sell the whole or any part of my said estate, real, personal and mixed, for such prices, on such terms and to such parties as my said executors shall deem meet; to settle and compound any and all claims, either in favor of or against my estate, upon such terms as to them may seem fit; and, for the purposes aforesaid, to execute and deliver all necessary and proper conveyances, and to give full receipts and discharges.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have set my hand and seal to this my

Probate Court of Cook County

May Term A.D. 1927 the 5th day of May
 A.D. 1927 court being in session.

Present Hon. Henry Horner, Judge of the Probate Court of Cook County.

Attest: Mitchell C. Robin, Clerk of the Probate Court of Cook County.

In the matter of the last will and) testament of Margaret Scouler,) Proof of Will and Issue of deceased.) Letters Testamentary.

This day came Helen M. Barrie, County of Cook in the State of Illinois, and produced in court an instrument in writing, purporting to be the last will and testament of Margaret Scouler, deceased, which instrument and her petition, duly verified, praying that said will might be admitted to probate, and that Letters Testamentary thereon might be issued to her the executor named therein, were heretofore filed in this court the hearing upon which was set for this day. And it appears that notice of such hearing was given as by statute required.

And it appearing to the court from said petition that Margaret Scouler of Oak Park in said county, departed this life on the 17th day of February 1927 leaving said writing as and for her last will and testament; and thereupon James M. Mills and Sidney F. Underwood the subscribing witnesses to said will appeared, and in open court, on oath testified that they were present at the execution of said will, and saw the said Margaret Scouler sign said will in their presence and heard her declare the same to be her last will and testament; that they subscribed their names thereto, as witnesses, in the presence of, and at the request of said testatrix and in the presence of each other, and that they believed the said testatrix was of sound mind and memory, and of lawful age at the time of signing said will, which testimony was reduced to writing by a shorthand reporter, and a transcript thereof filed with said instrument, the signatures of the said witnesses thereto being waived by the court.

And it appearing to the court from said testimony that said will was duly executed and attested according to law, and that the said testatrix was of sound disposing mind and memory, and otherwise competent to make her will at the time of signing the same; it is ordered that said will be received and recorded as the last will and testament of the said Margaret Scouler, deceased.

And it is further ordered that letters testamentary on said will be issued to the said Helen M. Barrie, executrix named in said will upon her filing her bond as such executrix in the penal sum of $3,000 conditioned as the law directs. Whereupon said Helen M. Barrie presents her said bond duly executed without surety, surety being waived by said will and takes and subscribes the oath of office as such executrix.

And the court having examined and approved said bond, it is ordered that letters testamentary be issued accordingly.

Letters Testamentary issued May 5, 1927 to Helen M. Barrie, executrix of the last will and testament of Margaret Scouler, deceased.
